VIOLENCE & AGRESSION POLICY AGREEMENT

All players must sign this agreement or MMPL registration may not be accepted

Aggression and violence towards officials, players and spectators is not acceptable. MMPL's management, committee & volunteers have a responsibility to prevent and manage aggression and violence. These rights and responsibilities are reinforced in OH&S legislation and criminal law legislation. Occupational Violence & Aggression covers a wide range of offences - examples include:

- Verbal abuse
- Intimidating behaviour / bullying
- Physical threatening behaviour (with or without a weapon)
- Physical assault (with or without a weapon)
- Sexual harassment

This form is not the actual Violence and Aggression Policy, this is the Violence & Aggression Policy Agreement only - by signing this form I state that I agree to abide by the Violence & Aggression Policy included in the MMPL's Constitution and By-laws on the MMPL website (www.mmpl.org.au).

PUBLICITY DISCLAIMER (optional)

This is optional, MMPL members are not required to sign this disclaimer

There will be occasions when the MMPL's Executive Committee will, in conjunction with Cueball.tv, require matches to be filmed and live streamed on the internet. Players may be omitted from these matches if desired, although for quality purposes we would prefer all matches to be filmed and viewed in their entirety.

There will also be occasions where photos and/or personal information will be used on the MMPL's website for Player Profiles, Gallery or general advertising. By signing this form I state that I agree to be photographed and/or filmed in conjunction with Cueball.tv and the MMPL's chosen photographer.
